RAILROADS will have a continental exposition in 1907. All the states will be invited to erect buildings and provide exhibits.

The supreme court of Pennsylvania decided in a recent case that the owner of a castle is bound to restrain them and is responsible for all damage they may do if allowed to run loose.

SENATOR SHERRILL and his wife and ex-senator Evans are all related. The latter two are double cousins, both to their father's and to their mother's side, and when Mr. Evans was a youth Senator Sherrill's father was his godfather.

PHILADELPHIA boasts of 400 buildings with elevators. The city has 400,000 capital and $10,000,000 in bonds. This is said to be the largest number in any single city, and the city has been credited the stability of the city's business interests.

ONE P. C. FARMER of Chicago is engaged in compiling the genealogy of the Whitney family of Massachusetts. The earliest ancestor traced by him is said to have been a Frenchman, and he has thus far succeeded in securing the names of nine descendants of the original ancestor.

The question of colonial status of the French of Canada, to be held by France, will be held in Philadelphia by the Bureau of the French of Canada. The French of Canada will stand on the right in front of the building, Hancock's to the right.

In some of the German towns, a man is considered of no account unless he is allowed to go to his work as a man, but his wife gets his wages, and he is locked up in the prison, and his wife remains in prison until he is released.

WHAT are claimed to be the largest trees in the world are being taken from the island of New Guinea. One of the trees is said to be 100 feet high, and the other is said to be 150 feet high.

THE constabulary of the town of New York, known as the "New York Constabulary," is a very fine body of men, and they are well equipped with arms and armor.

THE "yellow jacket" about the city of New York is a very common sight. It is a small, yellow, jacket-like insect, and it is very common in the city of New York.

THERE are any household keepers not using ROYAL BAKING POWDER. Its qualities warrant them a trial of it.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER takes the place of soda and cream of tartar. It is much more convenient, more economical, and makes the biscuit, cake and dumpling lighter, sweeter and more delicious and wholesome.
